“A marriage strengthening small group!”

This is a great small group to help you keep lines of communication open in your relationship while also keeping your marriage focused on God! Don't worry you don't have to be a bible scholar or share anything private in this small group. It is a time to meet with other Christian couples that may share some of the daily struggles marriages face. It's nice to hear other couples who may have the same concerns you do, while also focusing on how God says we should love our spouse. It's also great fellowship and a couple hours to focus on your relationship.

This fall we will be doing the video and workbook:

iMarriage

by Andy Stanley

“Standing at the altar, we all had a picture of what our marriage would look like. The problem is this picture of marriage results in expectations that we unload on our spouse. The weight of these expectations will rob your marriage of love and joy. As a spouse you never feel like you measure up and you never feel like you are good enough. So what are you to do with your expectations? You can't deny them, because most expectations started out as God-given desires.”
